Our History

The formation of Bruin Professionals (BP) is a result of identifying a need to create a UCLA Alumni Network dedicated to the development of business opportunities and relationships. Mike Anderson, Randy Sheinbein, Matthew Baker, and Mark Baker envisioned a UCLA community that brought professional alumni together in an intimate setting to benefit and expand their businesses. Created in 2003, Bruin Professionals continues to be a platform to develop relationships, identify business needs, and share advice.

Who We Are

Bruin Professionals is comprised of UCLA Graduates who are interested in staying connected to the school and all the opportunities it has to offer.

Regular Membership

Members with multiple years of experience within their profession who are in the position to both refer and act on referrals, and are willing to assist fellow Alumni.

Associate Membership

Members who are 0-10 years out of college receive membership at a reduced rate in exchange for participation on their home chapter's executive committee. Young professionals are able to grow their network and obtain leadership experience.
